ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

(Under G.L. Ch. 180)
Incorporators

NAME	RESIDENCE
Include given name in full in case of natural persons; in case of a corporation, give state of incorporation.

We, James H. Sullivan, Domenic J.F. Russo, Keesler H. Montgomery, and William A. Murray

The above-named incorporator(s) do hereby associate (themselves) with the intention of forming a corporation under the provisions of General Laws, Chapter 180 and hereby state(s):

1. The name by which the corporation shall be known is:

Clerk - Magistrate Association for Continuing Legal Education Inc.

2. The purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows:

To foster and encourage and provide legal education and learning for Clerk-Magistrates, their assistants, and other Court personnel on a non-profit basis, at institutions of learning, by seminars or otherwise, on a formal or informal basis, at such places, including Court-houses, as the Corporation may require.

To do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes aforesaid or incidental to the powers therein named.

To apply for, obtain, execute, such applications and grants as may be required for the financial aid of obtaining legal education and learning from the United States, State, Local Municipal Government, or Charitable Foundations in order to accomplish any of the purposes aforesaid.

To hold real and personal estate to an unlimited amount, which estate or its income shall be devoted to the purposes set forth in its Charter; and it may receive and hold, in trust or otherwise, funds received by gift or bequest to be devoted by it to such purposes; and indemnification of directors, officers, employees, or other agents of the corporation as provided by G.L. Chapter 180, sec. 6.

NOTE: If provisions for which the space provided under Articles 2, 3 and 4 is not sufficient, additions should be set out on continuation sheets to be numbered 2A, 2B, etc. Indicate under each Article where the provision is set out. Continuation sheets shall be on 8½" x 11" paper and must have a left-hand margin 1 inch wide for binding. Only one side should be used.

3. If the corporation has more than one class of members, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointment, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, are as follows:—

NONE

- 4. Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:—

SEE SHEET ATTACHED

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the education purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees or Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

5. By-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers whose names are set out below, have been duly elected.
6. The effective date of organization of the corporation shall be the date of filing with the Secretary of the Commonwealth or if later date is desired, specify date, (not more than 30 days after date of filing.)
